

Greater Somerset County YMCA is hosting a Black-Owned Business Pop-Up on Friday, June 23!

In honor of Juneteenth, we're inviting the Y members and the community to get acquainted with local Black-owned businesses serving our community. Local Black-owned businesses are invited to partner with the Y on this event by hosting a table. As a Black-owned business, you'll have an opportunity to raise awareness of your business, how you contribute to our richly diverse local economies, and even share a sampling of your products and services firsthand!

Friday, June 23rd from 2-6 PM at the following Greater Somerset County YMCA branches:

- Hillsborough YMCA: 19 E Mountain Road, Hillsborough, NJ 08844
- Princeton YMCA: 59 Paul Robeson Place, Princeton, NJ 08540
- Somerset Hills YMCA: 140 Mt Airy Road, Basking Ridge, NJ 07920
- Somerville YMCA: 2 Green St, Somerville, NJ 08876

Partner participation details:

- There is no cost for partner participation in the event
- Partners may sell their products or services at the event
- Partners are permitted to offer an activity at their table that provides a community benefit and aligns with the theme of Juneteenth and strengthening community
- Partners must submit any intended activity to the Y for prior approval
- Partners must bring a government-issued photo ID them for entry to the facility on the day of the event
- Partners must bring their own table to the event and are responsible for set-up and take-down
