MEET RUTH

“Over 40 years ago, I joined the Y to enroll my daughter in swim lessons; she was swimming on her own by age 3! Through the years, the Y has become an essential part of my daily routine with water exercise, cardio workouts, and lap swimming. Recently, I also began strength training. At my annual physical, my doctor compared me to his 63-year old patients...I'm in my mid 70s! Being active allows me to travel, which I love. My health and well-being are because of the Y. It's a wonderful place for seniors to strengthen physical and mental health through exercise and socialization; especially for seniors, like me, who live alone. The staff are so supportive and I've made many friends. I proudly support the Y and its mission to strengthen community; and, I encourage others to do the same. I love the Y; it will always remain part of my life.” – Ruth
