YOUR GIFT MAKES IT POSSIBLE... MEET REBECCA'S FAMILY

On Mother's Day 2024, Rebecca's husband passed away. In an instant, their world turned upside down for her and her two children.

A school counselor told Rebecca about the Y's Camp Dragonfly, a free summer program for children who have experienced loss.

With uncertainty and hesitation, she enrolled her two children. On the first day of camp, drop-off was hard and filled with anxiety; but, at pick up, Rebecca was relieved by the smiles on her children's faces. Camp was a safe space where the children felt understood and reassured that they were not alone in their grief.

"Camp Dragonfly has been amazing for my kids. It's wonderful to see my children this happy. I'm so grateful to the counselors, they truly care and make a difference. My children's outlook has positively shifted, and I credit the Y for that. Simply put, they are flourishing.

Grief has hit us hard and our lives have felt so heavy at times, but the Y brought lightness and laughter back into our lives. To me, the Y is about community and heart. So much of life is transactional, but we never feel that way at the Y. We aren't just a family passing through, we truly matter. We are so grateful to the Y and feel hopeful for our future." – Rebecca
